SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS AND MEMBERSHIP

Election of members of the board of trustees shall be held in the manner provided by state statutes as they are detailed and prescribed by the Wyoming Election Code and the Constitution of the State of Wyoming.

Board members are elected at large. That is, they must live within the district boundaries and be elected by the highest number of votes cast by those people voting in the election.

A regular term is four years. The terms will be staggered.

The annual election of board members is held at the general election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in even numbered years. Board members are elected on a non-partisan ballot in accordance with provisions of the Wyoming Election Code.

A qualified person may be nominated for office by filing an application for election with the county clerk in the manner provided by law.
